

The Electro Swing Revolution Vol. 4

Lola's World Records / Soulfood)

Releasedate: 05th of October 2013

The musical genre Electro Swing originated around the turn of the millennium and combines modern electronic beats with elements of swing, gospel and jazz from the 20s to the 50s of the last century. For some years now this music is conquering the clubs worldwide.

Among the various samplers "The Electro Swing Revolution" has excelled with flying colors. Now the fourth edition appears, again a collaboration between the DJs and editors Gülbahar Kültür (WDR Funkhaus Europa / Radio Bremen) and Johannes Heretsch (Radio Corax Halle / Electro Swing Revolution Radio Berlin).

This fourth edition reveals again the fascinating range of style and the actual highlights of the Electro Swing Revolution, with the two well-known names represented on both CDs: Parov Stelar from Vienna and the neo-swing-queen Caro Emerald from Amsterdam.

CD1: "SHAKE, SHAKE, SHAKE" was conceived by Gülbahar Kültür.

Up to approx. 70 compilations were compiled and distributed worldwide by the Bremen music editor and DJane for the label Lola's World Records, including the successful series "Swing Style".

On the first CD you will find old and new swing heroes such as Big Bad Voodoo Daddy and Swing Republic side by side with artists we originally know from other contexts and who have discovered - like many others - their heart for Electro Swing. There are e.g. the nu-jazz producer Kenneth Bager from Copenhagen, who could win the singer Aloe Blacc for a session, the Latin-House DJ Buscemi from Belgium, Mad Manoush, the gypsy musicians from Switzerland, DJ Pony Montana from Italy, Skeewiff from England, Intended Immigration from the United States or Savages Y Suefo from Hungary.

CD2: "STEPPIN OUT!" was compiled by Johannes Heretsch aka Louie Prima.

The DJ and music editor serves on his CD 19 brand-new and partly previously unreleased Electro Swing pearls from ten countries.

La Caravane Passe from Paris go down in an authentic style into the middle of the 1930s with "T'as La Touche Manouche" to honour Django Reinhardt. DJ Click, the master of consoles, realizes a perfect combination of the Roma and Manouche sounds with Electro Beats.

Absolutely worth listening to are moreover the propelling tracks from known artists like Bart & Baker, Alice Francis, Club des Belugas, Bebo Best or Tape Five.

Besides the well-known stars we can also find many exciting new discoveries, like the young DJ-team RumSpringer from Australia and the band Babil On Suite, previously better known for lounge jazz, with "Vienimi A Trovare Ad Amsterdam", a mega hit in her native country Italy.

Louie Prima has become active again as a remixer with two titles:

Track 01: Harry Chestwig - "Komm, Sei So Lieb" in cooperation with Justin Fidèle and Track 19: Max Pashm - "Kikilaki" (bonus track) in cooperation with Harry Chestwig.

Electro Swing is more than just a style of music. It is a musical revolution and an exceptionally dynamic dance form. This dance, originated from the traditional Lindy Hop, is incredibly successful now.

The dance classes bursting at the seams are desperately looking for qualified dancing instructors and the audience also demands impatiently for new Electro Swing tracks.

"The Electro Swing Revolution Vol. 04" presents 37 new hits for the dance floor.

A musical present, not only for dance enthusiasts.
